Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Econometrics has had an impressively successful start, with articles published by leading econometricians that are accessible with a minimum of delay. Econometrics has already established a reputation for the quality of its published papers and the fairness and consistency of the editorial process. Econometrics takes as its standard to publish research of international significance that will have a lasting impact on the direction of econometric theory and practice. It is competitive with leading journals in the field, with the advantage of timely, open-access publication.
